

Every Man Should

Believe in his own Ability, But not be over Confident, Never Shy away from hard work, Be down to Earth. Yet dream of reaching for the Stars, Try and make things Happen rather than waiting for them to Happen. He should fall in Love at least once in his Life. Treat the Woman in his life like a Princess. Contribute equally to a Relationship, know What to say, How to say and When to say it and when to just quit Hug, Try to remain Calm. When she is Driving, At least pretend that he is Listening. He should have a good sense of Humour and know when to use it, Know his way around in a Kitchen, Take failures in his stride and never stop Trying. Never Flaunt his masculinity too much, Make it a point to send his loved ones a Token of love, Live like an Emperor, Yet be a child at Heart.
